Shareholders or their representatives who arrive after the meeting has commenced still have the right to register, attend, and vote at the meeting. The Chairperson is not responsible for halting the meeting to allow late-registering shareholders or their representatives to register, and the validity of previous voting rounds will not be affected.

- For shareholders or their representatives attending the Annual General Meeting online, they will access via the link provided in the meeting invitation, choosing to log in as a shareholder using the username “Certificate Number, ID/CI D Number”. Shareholders are confirmed to have participated in the Annual General Meeting after authentication and login to the Electronic Voting system through one of the following methods:

- + Authentication of ID/CID/Passport information registered for CTR share ownership via EKYC;
- + Authentication via OTP sent via SMS/Email to the shareholder’s registered phone number/email address on the shareholder list dated March 8, 2024, provided by VSDC.

2. Methods of attendance, voting, and elections at the AGM:

a. Forms of attendance and voting

Shareholders or their representatives may attend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders either in person or online and cast electronic votes as regulated. Detailed instructions for attending the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders will be issued and posted on the website <https://viettelconstruction.com.vn/> by the Corporation.

b. Voting on issues within the competence of the AGM

Voting via Electronic Voting, as follows:

- From 08:00 AM on April 17th, 2024, shareholders or their representatives with the right to vote can access and vote on issues within the competence of the AGM. The end of the voting period shall be announced on the Electronic Voting system or directly announced during the AGM. After the voting period ends, the system will not record additional electronic voting results.

- Shareholders or their representatives cast votes on each issue in the meeting agenda. When voting via Electronic Voting, for each content, shareholders or their representatives choose one of the three options “Aye”, “Nay”, and “Abstention” on the voting ballot preset in the Electronic Voting system. Shareholders or their representatives press “Submit Voting Ballot” to save and submit the voting results to the system.

- Contents are approved when meeting the percentage required by the Enterprise Law and the Corporation’s Charter..

c. Election procedure:

- Election time as prescribed in Subsection b of this Article.

- Shareholders or their representatives will vote for members of the Board of Directors through the Electronic Voting system..

- The election of members of the Board of Directors is conducted by cumulative voting as prescribed by the Enterprise Law and the Company’s Charter. Accordingly, each shareholder or their representative has a total number of votes corresponding to the total voting shares owned multiplied by the total number of Board of Directors members to be elected. Shareholders or their representatives may (1) cast all of their total votes for one candidate; or (2) evenly distribute the votes among selected candidates; or (3) allocate their votes to selected candidates based on specific votes and ensure that the total votes for candidates do not exceed the total votes of each shareholder.

d. Recognition and announcement of voting and election results:

- Shareholders or their representatives may amend their voting/election results multiple times but cannot cancel the results..

- After the voting period as announced by the Organizing Committee, the Electronic Voting system will be closed, and the latest voting results of shareholders or their representatives will be recorded.

- Voting results will be determined for each issue, with the outcome of each issue recorded based on the options “Ay,” “Nay,” and “Abstention,” and calculated as a percentage rounded to 05 decimal places.

- Election results will be recorded based on the total number of votes from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the required number of members are elected. A winning candidate must have at least one (01) vote. In the event that two (02) or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final member position, the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders will conduct a re-election among the candidates with the same number of votes to select the candidate with the highest number of votes.

Article 13. Passing resolutions at the AGM

1. The voting ratio to pass the issues for consultation at the AGM shall be implemented according to the provisions of the Enterprise Law and the Charter.

2. For shareholders or their representatives who have logged into the electronic voting system but have not submitted their voting ballot, they will be considered as attending the meeting but not participating in the voting process. The shares of such shareholders or their representatives shall not be counted as the basis for determining the voting ratio for the issues at the General Meeting.

3. The Vote Counting Committee is responsible for consolidating the voting and election results as recorded by the Electronic Voting system and compiling a Vote Counting Report, clearly stating the issues that have been approved and the list of elected members for each position. The Vote Counting Report shall be signed by the members of the Vote Counting Committee to confirm its accuracy, transparency, and compliance with the principles and procedures of vote counting. The Chairperson of the Vote Counting Committee is responsible for announcing the Vote Counting Report before the AGM.

Article 14. Minutes of the AGM

The content of the AGM is documented in the Minutes, which are publicly disclosed and appropriately archived in accordance with legal regulations and the Corporation’s Charter. The Minutes of the meeting are read to all attendees of the General Meeting and approved before the adjournment of the meeting.
